THE EMIGRATION STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE YEAR 1913.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN CAMPBELL, EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.,

Esq., &c., &c.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

The Report which I now have the honour of submitting to your Excellency relates to the Statistics of Emigration from Ireland for the year 1913.]

Emigrants
from Irish Ports.

An "Emigrant" is herein defined as "a person who leaves Ireland with the intention of settling permanently elsewhere," and the Enumerators have instructions to make a return of such persons departing in each passenger ship which sails from an Irish port.

Monthly returns were published during the year, giving the number of emigrants, and showing the comparative figures for the preceding years.

The following detailed tables comprise the summary portion of this Report:—Table 1 showing, for each county and province, the numbers, sexes, ages, and conjugal condition of the persons who emigrated from Ireland in the year 1913.—Table 2 showing the ages and occupations of the male and female emigrants who left Ireland in the year 1913.—Table 3 giving information regarding the occupations by certain age-periods of the emigrants who left Ireland for the United States of America in the year 1913.—Table 4 showing the destinations of emigrants (natives of Ireland) from each province and county during the year 1913, and the number of emigrants from each county to every 1,000 of the population, according to the Census of 1911.—Table 5 giving the number of male and female emigrants (natives of Ireland) who left Irish Ports, during each month of the year 1913.

The total number of emigrants from Ireland during the year 1913 was 31,339 (16,727 males and 14,612 females). Of the males, 16,452, and of the females, 14,515, were natives of Ireland, the total number, 30,967, being equivalent to a rate of 7.1 per 1,000 of the population estimated to the middle of the year 1913, and showing an increase of 1,623 as compared with the year 1912.

Emigration Returns for Ireland were first collected on the 1st May, 1851, and the reports based thereon show that the total number of emigrants—natives of Ireland—who left Irish ports from the above-mentioned date to the end of December, 1913, amounts, in the aggregate, to 4,278,327, the number of males being 2,224,089 and of females 2,054,238. The number of emigrants for each year, from 1st May, 1851, to the 31st December, 1913, is given in Table I, also the estimated population and the emigration rate per 1,000 for each year of the included period.

* The date at which the collection of these Returns commenced

From the above tabular statement it will be seen that the largest number of emigrants for any year of the period 1852–1913 was 190,322 in the year 1852, this number representing a rate of 30.0 per 1,000 of the population of Ireland estimated to the middle of the year; and that the lowest number was 23,295 (or 5.3 per 1,000 of the estimated population) in the year 1908. Between the figures for 1852 and 1908 the six highest numbers were—173,148 in 1853, affording a rate of 27.9 per 1,000; 140,555, or 23.1 per 1,000, in 1854; 117,229 in 1863, with a rate of 20.5 per 1,000; 114,169 in 1864, with a rate of 20.2 per 1,000 of the estimated population; 108,724 in 1883, the rate per 1,000 of the population being 21.6; and 101,497 in 1865, or 18.1 per 1,000 of the population; and the six lowest between the extremes referred to were 28,676 (equivalent to 6.5 per 1,000 of the population) in 1909; 29,344 (equivalent to 6.7 per 1,000 of the population) in 1912; 30,573 (equivalent to 7.0 per 1,000 of the population) in 1911; 30,676 (or 7.1 per 1,000) in 1913, and 32,241 in 1898, the rate per 1,000 of the estimated population being 7.1.

The number of emigrants for the year 1913 is below the average for any of the decennial periods for which records are available. In the ten years 1903–1912, the average was 32,614; in the ten years, 1893–1902, the average number of emigrants was 40,284; in the ten years 1883–1892, the annual average was 71,364; in the ten years, 1873–1882, the average number was 64,214; in the ten-yearly period, 1863–1872, it was 86,477; and the average for the ten years, 1853–1862 was 95,545.

Table II shows the number of emigrants from Ireland, by provinces, in each of the years 1912 and 1913, according to sex, with the increase or decrease in the year 1913. When compared with 1912, it appears that there is for Leinster an increase of 139, for Munster an increase of 640, for Ulster an increase of 540, and for Connaught an increase of 304 emigrants.

Of the 30,967 natives of Ireland who left the country, during the year 1913, 3,994 were from Leinster, or 3.4 per 1,000 of the population of the province in 1911; 7,897, or 7.5 per 1,000, from Munster; 12,392, or 7.8 per 1,000 from Ulster; 6,774, or 11.1 per 1,000 from Connaught; the total number being equal to 7.1 per 1,000 of the population of Ireland estimated to the middle of 1913.

The numbers and sexes of the emigrants from each county and province of Ireland from the 1st of May, 1851, to the 31st of December, 1913, are shown in Table III. on page 6, and, for the purposes of comparison between the several counties and provinces in Ireland, the percentage of emigrants to the population* is also given.

Number of Emigrants from each County and Province.

From this table it may be seen that during the period mentioned above an aggregate total of 4,328,561 persons emigrated from Irish ports. Of these 4,278,327 were natives of Ireland, and 50,234 were persons belonging to other countries. The number of natives of Ireland (4,278,327), who emigrated during the period (1851-1913) is equivalent to 82.0 per cent. of the average population,* Munster contributing 1,481,896 persons, being equal to 110.5 per cent. of the average population of the province; Connaught, 721,479, or 90.6 per cent.; Ulster, 1,226,470, or 69.9 per cent.; and Leinster, 737,743, equivalent to 55.8 per cent. of its average population.† The county to which the emigrants belonged was not specified in the returns in 110,739 cases; this information, has, however, been obtained in every case since 1876, with the exception of 53 cases in 1880 and 71 in 1903.

* Calculated on an average of the Census Numbers for 1851, 1861, 1871, 1881, 1891, 1901, and 1911.

Table 1., pages 10-11, gives the numbers, ages, sexes, and conjugal condition of the emigrants from each county of Ireland together with corresponding information with respect to persons belonging to other countries, who embarked at Irish ports during the year 1913. The only quinquennial age-period in which the females greatly outnumbered the males is that between fifteen and twenty; at this age-period the number of females was 4,155, and of males 2,233. The quinquennial age-period, 20-25 years, furnished the largest number of both male and female emigrants (7,486 males and 5,798 females)—the emigrants at this age-period forming 42.4 per cent. of the entire number of those who emigrated during the year 1913.

During the year 1913 of the male emigrants, numbering 16,727, there were 1,559, or 9.3 per cent. described as married men or widowers; and of the 14,612 female emigrants, 1,750, or 12.0 per cent., were returned as married or widowed. Of the 13,284 persons between the ages of 20 and 25 years who emigrated, 299 only were married—107 males and 192 females.

The destinations of the emigrants (natives of Ireland) from each county during the year 1913 are shown in Table 4 on page 15. This table shows that 29,818 (or 96.3 per cent. of the total) emigrated to the Colonies or to Foreign Countries, and 1,149 (or 3.7 per cent.) to Great Britain. The United States of America was the destination of 21,758 emigrants (or 70.3 per cent. of the total number of emigrants—natives of Ireland) in 1913 in comparison with an average of 22,289 (or 73.6 per cent.) for the four preceding years. Emigration to Canada shows an increase of 885 in 1913, as compared with 1912, the numbers being 6,673 in 1913, and 5,788 in 1912. The number of emigrants to South Africa in 1913 was 214, as against 147 in the year 1912. The emigrants to Australia numbered 915 in 1913, as against 842 in 1912, 765 in 1911, 613 in 1910, 782 in 1909, 607 in 1908, 365 in 1907, 343 in 1906, 285 in 1905, 336 in 1904, 380 in 1903, 496 in 1902, 595 in 1901, 834 in 1900, 1,005 in 1899, 837 in 1898, 676 in 1897, 545 in 1896, 629 in 1895, 457 in 1894, and 511 in 1893.

Emigrants to New Zealand numbered 230 in 1913, as against 189 in 1912. The 38 persons who went to "Other Countries" in the year 1913 include 13 returned as emigrating to South America, 8 to India, 7 to West Africa, 3 to Portugal, 2 to each of Malaya and France, and one to each of East Africa, Russia and Belgium.

Among the emigrants—natives of Ireland—to the United States in 1913, in number 21,758, there were 7,239 natives of Munster, 6,455 of Connaught, 5,497 of Ulster, and 2,567 of Leinster. Ulster contributed 475 and Leinster 276 of the 915 who left for Australia. Ulster furnished the largest contingent to Canada—5,524 out of a total of 6,673 emigrants.

The number of natives of Ireland who emigrated during the year 1913, with the intention of settling permanently in Great Britain, was 1,149. Of the total, 911 left for England and Wales, and 238 for Scotland, as against 1,651 and 476, the respective averages for emigrants to these countries for the four years preceding. Of the number who went to England and Wales during the year, 479 or 52.6 per cent. were natives of the province of Ulster, and of the 238 who went to Scotland no less than 130 or 54.6 per cent. were also from Ulster.

Table 4 on page 15 shows the destinations of the emigrants—natives of Ireland in 1913, the Census populations in 1911 and the ratio of the emigrants to every 1,000 of the population for each county and province. From this table it appears that the highest provincial rate was 11.1 per 1,000 of the population for Connaught; Ulster came next with a rate of 7.8, and the rates for Munster and Leinster were, respectively, 7.5 and 3.4 per 1,000. In the counties the highest rates were as follows:—Mayo, 12.7; Galway, 12.0; Leitrim, 11.3; Kerry, 11.2; Clare, 10.4; Cavan, 9.8; Longford, 9.5; Sligo, 9.4; Tyrone, 8.8, and Armagh, 8.8.

Particulars regarding the occupations and ages of the emigrants of each sex who left Ireland in 1913 are given in Table 2, on pages 12-13. From an examination of this table it will be seen that of the 15,469 males aged 15 years and upwards, 10,211, or 66.0 per cent., were returned as "labourers"; and of the 13,361 females at 15 years and upwards, 9,653, or 72.2 per cent., were returned as "servants."

The number of emigrants who embarked as steerage passengers to the United States was 19,368, and of these 5,671 had their passages paid for in America.

In the following statement a comparison is shown between the figures for 1913 and those for each of the 9 years, 1904-12:—

Year	Seawage Passengers to the United States of America
	Total Number.	Number who had their passages paid for in America.
1904	28,438	10,819
1905	23,546	8,884
1906	25,378	9,530
1907	27,853	8,297
1908	15,874	5,268
1909	20,658	6,814

1911	19,997	6,395
1912	18,357	5,762
1913	19,566	5,471

Of the 5671, emigrants whose passages were paid for in America, 406 left in March Quarter, 3,148 in June Quarter, 1,421 in September Quarter, and 696 in December Quarter of 1913. Information regarding the occupations and ages of emigrants to the United States of America is furnished in Table 3, page 14 of this Report.
